WITH THE HUNTERS IN WISCONSIN WOODS

DR. E. A. SICKELS WRITES OF EXPERIENCES OF DIXON
DEER HUNTERS

SHEFFELD GETS "CUB BEAR"

While Miller's Voice and Vocabulary
Arouse Admiration of Natives

The Telegraph has received a very interesting letter from Dr. E. A. Sickels, who is camping in the northern Wisconsin woods, with other Dixon hunters. Dr. Sickels' letter under the date of Nov. 12th, will certainly be read with interest by his many friends:

Dear Telegraph:—As a fulfillment of the promise I made to try and give you an account of the many adventures and accidents which have come to us during our brief stay here: Schuler and I arrived here Oct. 28th and next day, with the assistance of Michael Coburn, alias Mike; Allison Drake, alias Honest Al; and George Winde—whose service we still retain as guides and general utility men—started to clear out nine miles of "tote road." This road has been absolutely unused for fourteen years.

Armed with axes, cross-cut saws and hooks, we succeeded, after six days of work, in cutting through. We have pitched our camp inside the walls of an old deserted logging camp. We are within 20 feet of a lake of the finest water in the world and are completely sheltered by hills and timber. It is surprising how much satisfaction we take in this supply of pure water. In fact we rarely feel the need of rum, coffee and tea, and the improving health of the entire crowd attests the value of pure water only. We have had an abundance of game. To date we have shot 59 partridge, and about 75 or 80 ducks, while small game, like rabbits, squirrels, muskquash and porcupine, hang plentiful about the camp.

Schuler Wants Muff

Charles Sheffield is tanning a porcupine skin—but more about that later. We have one visitor to our camp, a beautiful white ermine, which to date has defied Schuler's most artfully set snares. However Pitcher is doing his best to catch the aforesaid visitor, as he says Schuler will certainly need the fur muff before cold weather sets in.

Our sleeping tent is 14 by 20, five-sixths of which is occupied by our beds. One of the remaining two-twelfths is occupied largely by Ward Miller's powerful voice as he tries to tell us how he does it; and the way he can juggle the English language will certainly make one who is not initiated sit up and take notice.

Miller Is Some Shot

But truthfully, Ward is one of our best shots. Today he shot a deer 26 feet away and hit it in the eye-brow. Yesterday he shot at another, but Schuler claims the deer as he "shot at the same time." However, we have two deer to the good. The other day Miller and Bill Schuler went for partridge. They brought in nine birds—"all killed on the wing, and with 10 shots." Dr. Baird and I walked over the trail after them, however, and counted eight bunches of feathers along the "dead man's road," which gave mute evidence of how eight of the aforesaid partridge departed this life. On our return to camp we acquainted the crowd with our newly discovered evidence. So Schuler said he could prove every word of his story if only Mayor Brinton were here—for he knew Brinton would always vote with him. Furthermore Mr. Bill Schuler admitted himself that if the birds were not flying, they were certainly running like—, the wind.

A few days since Baird and Schuler went to Drake's Lake for duck. The lake has quite a marshy shore with a floating bog. After spending a couple of hours picking marsh cranberries, they saw some ducks alight. They crawled for some dis-

"AUNT STETA" HAS BEEN CALLED HOME

MISS STEVENSON, A SKILLFUL
NURSE OF EARLY DIXON DAYS, IS DEAD.

SHEFFELD GETS "CUB BEAR"

Nursed in Most of Well Known Dixon Families—Was in Her 96th Year.

Hundreds of friends will be shocked to learn of the death of "Aunt Stet" Stevenson, who passed away at 7:45 this morning at her home on the A. H. Sheffield farm on the Ridge, near Grand Detour.

Aunt Steta was one of the best known women in this vicinity during the early days, by virtue of her profession, that of nursing. For many years, she was the principal nurse in Dixon and had a guiding hand in the bringing of many of the children in the most prominent families into the world.

The funeral will be held from the Sheffield farm tomorrow at 3 p. m. and burial will take place in the Sheffield lot in the Grand Detour cemetery. Rev. Whitcombe will be in charge of the services.

Elizabeth E. Stevenson was born in Yorkshire, Eng. She came to this country and Dixon in 1855. If she had lived until 12th of February next, she would have been 96 years of age.

A brighter, better, sweeter woman never lived. Her hundreds of friends will never forget the sweet memory of this good woman, whose long tenure of life on this earth made human nature that much better.

About six weeks ago Miss Stevenson, who was a maiden lady, fell and broke her hip, and because of her age the fracture never mended. She has always made her home with the Sheffield family when she was not nursing.

MUCH INTEREST IN SEWER JOB

LARGE NUMBER OF CONTRACT-ORS REPORTED READY TO BID ON JOBS.

John M. Egan, formerly of Amboy and now connected with the Macomb Sewer Pipe company, and Newton A. Farrar of the same concern, was here yesterday on business connected with the letting of the seven sewer contracts by the local board Monday at 2 p. m. Mr. Egan reports that a large number of contractors have expressed an interest in this letting, which will be of work totaling over $13,000, and accordingly the city officials anticipate a larger number of bidders on the work than have made prices on any sewer work here for some time.

NEW SCHEME OF DIVISION AT THE MEET OF FRIDAY,
NOV. 21ST.

NEWS BUTCHER HAS A NARROW ESCAPE

CARRIGAN ON STERLING PAS-SENGER SWUNG FROM TRAIN INTO TRUCK.

Will Carrigan, the news agent on the Sterling passenger, who is well known and liked by all the patrons of the train, had a narrow escape from serious injury yesterday morning as the train pulled into the Rochelle station. Without looking ahead the young fellow swung himself out of the baggage car door in such a manner as to be brushed off by a truck load of trunks which the baggage man had drawn up.

The lad was knocked from the step and fell to the ground between the rail and the platform. Fortunately the train was moving slowly and the boy was able to keep his body away from the train. He escaped with a few painful bruises and scratches, but the trainmen who witnessed the mishap say his escape from serious injury yesterday morning.

The boy, it is said by the train crew, has been in the habit of swinging from the car doors when the train is in motion despite the repeated warnings of the older employees, and it is believed that yesterday's experience will be a lesson to the young fellow.

FIRE TRUCK HERE SOON.

Commissioner M. J. Gannon has received advices from the new auto fire truck, which was ordered from the White company several weeks ago, that the machine will be completed and delivered about the last of this month or the first of December. Alterations have been completed at the fire hall to make room for the apparatus, one of the stalls being removed.

BLACKBURN HAS NEW BARN.

M. C. Blackburn has moved his livery stock from his old location on First street to the Bovey sheds at the corner of Ottawa avenue and River street, which have been remodelled to meet his requirements, and as a result Mr. Blackburn has one of the most convenient and commodious barns in this section of the state.

Tomorrow evening at the regular service the following debate will be given, at 7:30. There will be special music:

GIRL MAKES CHARGES AGAINST LOCAL NEGRO

OFFICERS ARE INVESTIGATING
REVOLTING STORY TOLD BY MOTHER.

WAS EIGHT YEAR OLD GIRL

States Attorney Edwards Investigating Case and Arrest May Follow Quickly.

Charges of a most serious nature against a local negro were made to the police last evening by the mother of an eight-year-old girl residing on Seventh street, and if the investigation which is now being conducted by the police and states attorney backs up the story told Officer Fitzsimmons last night, the colored fellow will soon be behind the bars.

Officer Fitzsimmons was summoned to the girl's home at about 8:30 o'clock last night, where the mother told of an attempted assault on the little miss by the fellow. According to her statement made at the time, she had sent her two daughters out to take in some clothing that had been hung out to dry, and had instructed them to go to a neighbor's to ascertain if that lady had any clothes on the line also, in order to avoid any confusion of the articles.

Offered Her Ring.

While one of the girls was in the neighboring house the negro, it is alleged, came along and called the other to him, and under pretense of wishing to give her a ring, enticed her into an outbuilding. The little girl's report of what took place is decidedly revolting, although it is fortunate the alleged brute did not accomplish his dastardly purpose.

The little one, according to the tale told the policeman, managed to get away and ran to the house where she sobbingly told her mother of what had happened. This morning the officers commenced their investigation and States Attorney Edwards took a hand in the case this afternoon.

LUTHERAN BOWLERS WIN

The Lutheran bowlers defeated the Presbyterians in their game at the Y. M. C. A. last evening, having a margin of 61 pins to the good after the third contest. The Methodists lead all teams in the league by 20 pins.

SPRAINS WRIST.

Val Heft is suffering from a badly sprained wrist which he received while husking corn near Franklin Grove this week. The tendons of the injured member are badly sprained and will prevent Mr. Heft working for some time.

HON. J. M'KENZIE HERE NEXT FRIDAY

CONGRESSMAN FROM THIS DIST-RICT WILL INTRODUCE CON-GRESSMAN MADDEN.

Hon. John C. McKenzie, congressman from this district, will be an added attraction at the second meeting of the Men's club of the Y. M. C. A., which will be held next Friday evening, word having been received from Mr. McKenzie that he will be here to meet his colleague, Hon. Martin B. Madden, and he will be called upon for a short address and to introduce Mr. Madden, who will give his lecture on the Panama Canal, which will be illustrated with moving pictures of the big ditch. Invitations for this event are being sent out today, and inasmuch as the members of the club will be asked to bring their wives or lady friends, a large attendance is assured.

RUNAWAY AUTO LAST EVENING

MACHINE STARTS OFF BY ITSELF
—WITNESSES STOP IT BEFORE DAMAGE IS DONE.

A "runaway" automobile threatened some excitement on First street last evening, and but for the agility and presence of mind of Dennis Denny the driverless machine might have been damaged or caused injury to pedestrians. Mr. Denny was standing in the doorway at the Downing grocery when he noticed Raffenberg's auto pass the door, west bound, and on second glance he realized that no one was in charge of the car.

Calling to other clerks in the store he rushed into the street and by exerting all his strength he was able to retard the car until the other clerks came to his aid. When it was stopped the car was nearly to Galena avenue, and had it gone on surely would have caused some damage. The car had been left standing in front of his place of business by Mr. Raffenberg.

CHAS. ENGLAND IS BETTER.

SPENCER GUILTY; HE MUST HANG

JURY DETERMINES FATE OF CHI-CAGO TANGO TEACHER'S SLAYER.

PRISONER IS ASTONISHED

Curses Everyone in Court and Tries To Break His Shackles—Slew Woman and Placed Body on Railroad Tracks.

Wheaton, Ill., Nov. 15—Henry Spencer was found guilty at Wheaton of the murder of Mrs. Mildred Allison-Rexroat on the night of September 26 at Wayne, Ill. The jury fixed his penalty at death on the gallows.

Astonished that the "demand" he had voiced so loudly during the trial had been granted, and that his secret hope of a verdict of insanity had slipped away, the slayer dropped his air of bravado and boastfulness.

His face turned a yellowish green and his lower jaw dropped. In a sudden frenzy he thrashed around, trying to free himself from the handcuff by which he was bound to John Hesterman, a deputy sheriff.

Curses and Blasphemes.

He cursed the court, the jurors and State's Attorney Hadley. He called the trial a perversion of justice and reviled anew all who had a part in it. When he passed the jury box on his way back to his cell he told the jurors he would like the "pleasure" of beating them to death with the hammer which he said he had used in killing many of the 23 persons he claimed to have murdered.

Precautions Against Suicide.

Sheriff Kuhn took the spectacles from the murderer's face and Spencer leaped upon him to recover them. Guards held him while he was searched again, and even a soft lead pencil was taken from his cell. The sheriff will have guards outside Spencer's cell door until he is hanged, and will spring the trap himself, he announced.

State's Attorney Hadley, after thanking the jurors, said he would get them tickets admitting them to see the execution if they desired and Sheriff Kuhn was willing. The remark brought renewed shrieks of rage from Spencer.

Boastful and Carefree.

Contrasted with this behavior was his actions when the jurors filed out of the courtroom.

"Good-by, boneheads; don't be afraid to hang me," he had called to them. At 5:35 the first ballot was taken. All voted for conviction, but one juror favored fixing the punishment at life imprisonment on the ground that Spencer was insane.

The second ballot was taken 47 minutes later. All of the 12 voted for conviction of murder in the first degree and agreed to send the defendant to the gallows.

"Bot a new suit of clothes they don't hang me," Spencer said to Deputy Sheriff Hesterman as he was taken into court to hear the verdict read.

Sullen on Stand.

The close of the trial was as sensational as the preceding hours. On the witness stand Spencer did not display the nonchalance regarding his killings that he had predicted he would. Instead, a perverse mood gripped him, and all he would answer was: "I don't know."

He refused to be sworn, saying he did not believe in God. He gave his name as "Jean Valjean," Victor Hugo's character in "Les Miserables." When he left the stand he said to the prosecutor:

"You're not running this case, Hadley. The jury's got my neck."

Slain September 26.

Mildred Allison Rexroat, or Mildred Allison, as she was known to habitués of dance halls in Chicago, was killed on September 26, in a lonely spot along the Elgin, Joliet & Eastern railroad tracks, near Wayne, Ill.

Her body was placed on the tracks and was run over by a freight train. Robert Rohel, the engineer, found the body and notified the authorities. It was believed at first that the death had been accidental. Later a post-mortem revealed a bullet wound in the head.

Detectives, tracing a diamond ring that had been taken from Mrs. Rexroat's finger, arrested Henry C. Spencer on October 5, at 2512 South Michigan avenue. He tried to slip the ring to Mrs. Walter Patterson.

BIG CAR IN SERVICE.

Here's a letter we received Friday afternoon:

Chicago, Nov. 12, '13.

Dear Pal:

Just a word, old Pal, for your writeups in the Dementtown Doings. James Francis Cushman better known as "Jimmie" or "Punk" who is well known on the avenue, pulled a nice stunt in here. He bought a new pair of trousers and went home on the elevated and left same trousers on the train. He is much wiser but out one pair of "pants."

YOUR PAL.

P. S.—He wouldn't have his Dixon friends know he was such a rube for anything.

We were not on duty this afternoon. Out of the city on business.

And again, friends, attend church tomorrow.

News Item—Huerta leaves Mexico.

He has not been seen on the avenue yet.

Advertising a method that is better than the known standards of the profession is an uphill business. People will not believe ads. about Painless Extraction or that it can be done and yet if we did not advertise—our work would never become known outside our home town.

Advertising alone would not pay but it does convince a FEW WHO WILL TRY. THAT IS WHAT COUNTS as every patient we get goes out and recommends our work. You Will Do It. Your recommendation is what really gets the business. It's the real advertising and builds the trail for my work over three states that I make as territory at regular intervals.

REFUSED MARRIAGE LICENSE.

An Iowa couple, whose names are withheld, encountered the Illinois laws to their sorrow this morning when they applied for a marriage license from County Clerk W. C. Thompson. During his questioning, necessary in the issue of a license, Mr. Thompson learned that the prospective bride had been divorced but two months, and inasmuch as the Illinois laws prohibit the marriage of persons who have been divorced within one year, the permit could not be issued. The almost-happy couple will, therefore, have to seek some other state.

The meeting was led by the president, Mrs. Emma Geisler.

Misses Bertha and Grace Uhl favored with a duet and Mrs. Bahen gave a reading.

Dr. F. P. Ludden who is western secretary for the Home Mission Board of the church and who was a guest of Rev. and Mrs. Heisey, was prevailed upon to remain for the meeting and gave one of his inspiring addresses. The parsonage has been wired for lighting, the workmen made the connection, and while Dr. Ludden was speaking, the light was turned on in a mellow glow, putting the good Doctor in the limelight, as it were.

Cobb-Hoon Wedding

A very pretty wedding ceremony took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Cobb, who reside at 302 Ninth St., Rochelle, last Monday morning.

At 10 o'clock their eldest daughter, Ethel M., became the bride of Seth W. Hoon of Vinton, Ia. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Albertus Perry, pastor of the Methodist church in the presence of the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends of the contracting parties. A bountiful wedding feast followed the ceremony.

The bride and groom left on the noon train Monday for Chicago after which they visited friends in Vinton, Ia.

The bride is a most accomplished young woman, graduating from the Rochelle high school in 1909 and from the Rockford Music College in 1913.

RASH ON ARMS ITCHED AND BURNED

Especially at Night. At Times Got No Sleep At All. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

400 South Hermitage Ave., Chicago, Ill. — "I was attacked with a breaking out on the inside of my arms. It was a small rash or pimples and it itched and burned, especially at night, so that before I knew it I had made myself sore. I had to wear the finest kind of cotton underwear, no woolen at all, because the least thing irritated it and made it much worse. The rash itched and smarted until at times I got no sleep at all.

"I had this trouble and took treatments for about one year, but they only gave me relief while taking them. Then I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I got relief right away. I made a good strong lather of Cuticura Soap and washed myself every night and morning, drying myself with a good soft towel, and then applied the Cuticura Ointment. In three months I was a well man again." (Signed) H. W. Foley, Nov. 5, 1912.

TO REMOVE DANDRUFF

Prevent dry, thin and falling hair, allay itching and irritation, and promote the growth and beauty of the hair, frequent shampoos with Cuticura Soap, assisted by occasional dressings with Cuticura Ointment, afford a most effective and economical treatment. A single set is often sufficient. Cuticura Soap (25c) and Cuticura Ointment (50c) are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 22-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

"Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp."

The box social which was held on Friday evening at the Burket school on the Franklin Grove road was an unqualified success. After the program, Colonel Cortright the rousing box social auctioneer, who resides on the Chicago road, sold the boxes to highest bidders.

The directors, Messrs. Burket, Carson, Book, and the teacher, Miss Estehr Young, are to be congratulated on the success of the event. The proceeds amounted to $53.75, which shows how successful was the entire affair.

Recital at College of Music

A recital was given last evening by the intermediate class of Strong's College of Music, and the large audience appreciated the better class music, so ably given by these rising young musicians. Miss Alice Copplins gave a long difficult selection on the violin from memory, and the violoncello and piano trio by Clinton John and Josephine Ives would have done credit to much older performers. All of the numbers were well played and a credit to the school.

Others giving violin solos were: Myrtle White bread and Grace Ruth; piano numbers by Jeanette Phillips, Pearl Biesecker, Hazel Whitebread, Harriet Schumm, Erman Brown and Ruth Cruse.

The next recital will be given by the advanced graduates in an excellent program of classic music in Copplins hall on Friday evening. Admission is free and the public is cordially invited.

games and enjoyed themselves until midnight.

WOULD STOP STRIKE

WILSON SEEKS TO SETTLE TROUBLE ON SOUTHERN ROAD.

Kruttschnitt Willing to Submit Controversies to Board of Mediation.

Washington, Nov. 15.—President Wilson sent word to Judge W. Lea Chambers, commissioner of mediation and conciliation, now in New York, asking him to get in touch with the strike situation on the Southern Pacific lines as quickly as possible.

Earlier in the day the president had called to the attention of Assistant Commissioner Hanger of that board the serious embarrassment to traffic resulting from the strike of trainmen and engineers on part of the Southern Pacific and urged him to go to New Orleans to arrange for mediation if possible.

New York, Nov. 15.—Julius Kruttschnitt, chairman of the executive committee of the Southern Pacific, announced that the railroad company was willing to discuss with a representative committee of four labor organizations now on strike the question of inaugurating a system of dealing with controversies through a joint committee representing all four organizations.

If no settlement should be reached by such means, the statement by Mr. Kruttschnitt says:

"The railroad is willing to have the controversy adjusted in the manner provided by the recent act of congress.

"It is further willing to have the controversy over its refusal to grant the demand actually made adjusted by the board of mediation and conciliation or by arbitration as provided in the act of congress. More than this cannot reasonably be required of it."

New Orleans, Nov. 15.—Except for two transcontinental passenger trains, one arriving and one leaving here, traffic on the Southern Pacific railway in Louisiana is tied up by the strike of operating employees. An embargo has been placed by the company on freight. Sugar planters fear loss if he strike is long continued. They caused an appeal to President Wilson during the day.

OBITUARY

JOHN F. VANCE.

John F. Vance was born Dec. 16, 1846, at Perth in the Province of Ontario, Can. When he was 3 years of age the family moved to Ogle county, Ill. There he grew to maturity, remaining in the same neighborhood 54 years.

He was married January 8, 1878, to Miss Catherine Anderson, who preceded him in death almost six months ago.

In 1904 he purchased a home near Dixon, where he resided until his death, November 11, 1913. Death was caused by heart failure, and as it was sudden and entirely unexpected, was a great shock to relatives and friends.

Mr. Vance was widely known in this vicinity and was a true man in all of life's relationships, careful in the discharge of his duties as a citizen, and upright in his business dealings. Many will feel the loss of his going away.

He is survived by three brothers and four sisters: Henry Vance, Los Angeles, Cal.; James Vance, Ashland, Ia.; George H. Vance, Multnomah, Ore.; Miss J. Eliza Vance and Mrs. G. F. Geyer, Crete, Neb.; Mrs. Mary A. Howard, Columbia, Mo., and Mrs. Letitia Bell, Multnomah, Oregon.

Funeral services were held at the home Friday morning at 9 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Heisey of the St. James and Zion churches. Interment was at the cemetery of Lighthouse church.

Among those present from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Vance, Oakland, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Mason, Cedar Rapids, Ia.; H. W. Howard, Cripple Creek, Colo., and Mrs. F. F. Stephens, Columbia, Mo. A sister, Mrs. M. A. Howard, was with him at the time of his death.

CARD OF THANKS

The relatives of the late John F. Vance wish to thank the neighbors and friends for their unflinching thoughtfulness and kindness during his death and burial. Mr. Vance frequently remarked that he had the best neighbors in the world.

HUERTA, BEATEN, WILLING TO QUIT

Without Congress to Take Resignation, Ruler Attempts to Save Face.

CRISIS BELIEVED DUE TODAY

United States Withholds New Parley—Dictator May Call Legislature to Prevent Humiliation.

Washington, Nov. 15.—Instructions were sent to Charge d'Affaires O'Shaughnessy indicating to him the extent to which the United States government will go in reopening the negotiations with those counselors of provisional President Huerta who earlier in the day sought to renew the parleys.

The Washington government will not assume negotiations until assurances can be given of provisional Huerta's intention to resign.

Efforts by counselors of Huerta to induce John Lind at Vera Cruz to reopen the entire subject has not been successful, it was reported.

Mr. Lind refused to go back to Mexico City unless some definite promises were forthcoming from Huerta.

Huerta Withholds the Word.

The latest news from Mexico City, aside from that was that Huerta's counselors had failed to obtain any pledge from him.

Chairman Bacon of the foreign relations committee, discussing dispatches saying that Huerta's counselors were seeking to reopen the negotiations, declared the only condition on which that could be done would be the complete surrender of Huerta to the American demands.

Administration officials continued to be optimistic over the support they were getting from the great powers abroad, but did not discuss the Mexican situation beyond indicating again that Huerta's elimination was inevitable.

Carranza Meets Hale Again.

Nogales, Sonora, Nov. 15.—Before going into a second conference with William Bayard Hale, President Wilson's special envoy, Gen. Venustiano Carranza said:

"We will accept no transactions, nor the interference of any nation to regulate Mexico's interior conditions."

After the conference, which lasted two hours, Carranza was noncommittal.

O'Shaughnessy Sees Settlement.

City of Mexico, Nov. 15.—"I do not believe that intervention by the United States will be necessary," said Nelson O'Shaughnessy. The American charge d'affaires added: "There is no immediate danger to Americans."

Wild reports, however, were in circulation. One was that certain banks would close within three days and that the government of Huerta was bankrupt.

Congress Meets Today.

Another said that after convening today the newly elected congress would rush through a measure to bring additional revenue from the people.

The ever-present rumor that Huerta was preparing his own elimination was voiced on all sides, but the president's counselors seeking to reopen negotiations with the United States admitted they could offer no definite pledge that he would quit.

Against the United States' demand that the new congress be not allowed to meet today Huerta's aids suggested that it be permitted to organize under definite assurances as to its legislation so that Huerta might have a body to which to send his resignation if he decided to quit.

Meantime Sir Lionel Carden, the British minister, conveyed to Huerta an intimation that the United States was earnest in its intentions and told the president that the British government was disposed to back the United States morally.

Lind Is Pessimistic.

Vera Cruz, Nov. 15.—Conversation with John Lind demonstrates that relations between the United States and Mexico are at a standstill. He is exceedingly pessimistic over the success of efforts to forestall a session of the new Mexican congress today, saying Huerta will not abdicate till the last match is burned.

Rear Admiral Bousch reports that a large force of rebels operating between Tuxpam and Tampico has stopped all work in the oil fields in that region, in which 500 Americans were employed.

His dispatch adds that 65 Americans and other foreigners, including 35 women and children, have been unable to leave Tuxpam, and that the British and American consuls are urging the Mexican government to send 1,000 troops there to prevent the capture of the town by constitutionalists.

Huerta's Family to Sail.

Vera Cruz, Nov. 15.—A report, which is believed authentic, says the family of Huerta will embark on the Fuerst Bismarck, sailing on the 16th. The principal staterooms are said to have been engaged through government channels. Prominent Mexicans doubt that the president will accompany them.

Firemen Buried Under Wall, St. Louis, Nov. 15.—A wall of a burning warehouse fell here, burying several firemen.

THIS LADY'S GOOD APPETITE

Mrs. Hansen, in a Letter From Mobile, Tells How She Gained It.

Mobile, Ala.—"I suffered for seven years, with womanly trouble," writes Mrs. Sigurd Hansen in a letter from this city. "I felt weak and always had a headache and was always going to the doctor. At last I was operated on, and felt better, but soon I had the same trouble."

My husband asked me to try Cardui. I felt better after the first bottle, and now, I have a good appetite and sleep well. I feel fine, and the doctor tells me I am looking better than he ever saw me."

If you are sick and miserable, and suffer from any of the pains due to womanly trouble—try Cardui.

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients that have been found to act curatively on the womanly constitution.

For more than fifty years, it has been used by women of all ages, with great success. Try it. Your druggist sells it.

N. B.—Write for Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and get name book, "Home Treatment of Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

WITH THE HUNTERS IN WISCONSIN WOODS

tance and fired ten shots; after the smoke cleared away, they found six ducks on the water. Schuler tied four poles together and gathered in two birds, the others catching in the weeds. Then he rigged up a set of marsh boots, which are simply pine slabs tied to ones feet. He failed to notice the entrance of a small creek and when he tried to cross the marshy creek, his marsh shoes failed him and he sank into the ooze up to his armpits. Luckily Dr. Baird had his pocket case, and a small amount of cordial, and a hot fire soon had Bill in his usual good spirits.

Our culinary department is presided over by the one and only camp cook—Art Handq.

Lemon pie, chocolate blanc mange, cookies, puddings, etc., are but a few of the delicacies which load our table daily. But the way he can serve partridge, duck, mutton and all sorts of game, proves him a cook of the very first order. For his defense he has a No. 30 Springfield, guaranteed to shoot five miles. For fear he would shoot over into the township he has cut the fore-half off each bullet, which he claims will reduce the trajectory and penetration one-half.

Sheff Gets Cub Bear

This Wisconsin atmosphere has certainly done great things for Sheffield. For 30 years he has been an invalid—in regard to his feet. He now walks as far and as easily as anyone in camp. He has to go home for fear he will have to go to work and lose out on his job of running over cows and telephone posts with his auto. I almost forgot Sheff's adventure with the "cub bear" and he was prospecting for deer signs the first day after they arrived in the camp, and in about two hours Sheff came breathlessly into camp and grabbed his rifle, yelling at us as he ran down the trail: "We've treed a bear." Two of the guides followed and arrived on the scene just at Sheff lay. They saw a black object fall and heard Sheff saying something about a "cub bear." He advanced proudly to exhibit his game and proceeded to hold up the "cub" for inspection. But his smile changed to an expression of extreme pain as he dropped the "cub" and proceeded to pick about 40 porcupine quills from his hands. The guides, of course, inquired for Baird, but before Sheff could answer a small voice drifted down from the top of a tall tree: "Here I am. Safe."

These are a few of the incidents which help to make camp life a pleasant surprise.

We are having winter weather, but keep warm and dry. We have everything in camp which can add to comfort or pleasure—even light our tents with acetylene gas and we are getting our share of game and are having a first class time. It is getting dark and the crowd is assembling.

Respectfully,
E. A. SICKELS.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

By Russell Byers
"In Nature, there are no false valuations."—Emerson.

Monday—Prof. Anderson gave his usual Monday morning talk. He read a creed written by a Massachusetts senior high school student. He also offered one dollar to one who wrote the best creed in this school.

Tuesday—Music.
Wednesday—Everyone is talking of going to the Elks dance.

Thursday—All look sleepy after a night's dance.

Friday—Literary societies meet.

A teacher was giving a lesson on the circulation of the blood. Trying to make the matter clearer he said: "Now, boys, if I stood on my head, the blood, as you know, would run into my face."

"Yes sir," said the boys.
"Now," he continued, "what I want to know is this: How is it, that while I am standing upright in ordinary position, the blood does not rush into my feet?" And a little fellow shouted: "Why Sir, because your feet ain't empty."

Miss Georgia Marshall entertained a number of her friends last Friday night at her home on Peoria avenue. The evening was spent in games and music. Delicious refreshments were served and all departed at a late hour. Miss Marshall proved to be an excellent entertainer.

The literary societies are progressing nicely and furnish many excellent programs, consisting of debates, readings, music and current events of the day.

Prof. Anderson's and Mrs. Ross' literary societies will combine a week from Friday and have a musical program.

Miss Helen Nelson of Chicago visited school last week with Miss Hazel Green. Miss Nelson made many friends while here.

Another collision at LaSalle last Saturday. Score 12 to 0 in favor of the other fellows.

Miss Goldie Straw of Grand Deor visited school last week with Miss Ruth Jogi.

Two Seniors were prowling mysteriously around Highland avenue and Eleventh street Monday night. One of them was especially interested in the shingles of a certain house. The smaller lad was timid and nothing was heard from him, after we find that the callers had come to that place to bid a dear friend good bye. We wish them better luck next time.

NOMAN SICK FOURTEEN YEARS

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Elkhart, Ind.:—"I suffered for fourteen years from organic inflammation, female weakness, pain and irregularities. The pains in my sides were increased by walking or standing on my feet and I had such awful bearing down feelings, was depressed in spirits and became thin and pale with dull, heavy eyes. I had six doctors from whom I received only temporary relief. I decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial and also the Sanative Wash. I have now used the remedies for four months and cannot express my thanks for what they have done for me.

"If these lines will be of any benefit you have my permission to publish them."—Mrs. SADIE WILLIAMS, 455 James Street, Elkhart, Indiana.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

"If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (Confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence."

Paul Byers and Charles Green went hunting for chickens Tuesday after school. Latest report is that seventeen shells were exploded and all the chickens in that vicinity are still alive. Byers and Green report that the chickens are plentiful.

Miss Caroline Simonson visited school Thursday afternoon with Erma Drew. Everybody was glad to see a dear old friend once again.

On more victory for the boys. The girls were put out of the boys' cloak room on account of roughness. All girls must use the east cloak room from now on.

Mrs. Elizabeth Owens spent Wednesday night with Miss Helen Bacharach. Latest report is: Helen snores.

The senior history class was discussing the Tariff bill and finding that the boys were not able to recite the teacher said: "I will have to call upon the girls, Robert Adams, you may recite."

Cause: Harry S. went to the Elks dance Wednesday night.

Effect: Fell asleep in the English class.

Heard from a Senior: "Mamma, give me some mustard I want to wash my feet."

"Wash your feet, my son. Why?"
"You see I must do the barefoot dance in the minstrels."

Urban O'Malley has been visiting for the last few days in Moline. The girls are all glad to hear of his return.

SEVEN ARE HONORED

Leaders of Arts and Letters Name "Immortals."

Among Those Mentioned at Chicago Meet Is Brand Whitlock—Augustus Thomas Is Given Medal.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Several new "emigolds" in the American world of arts and letters were named for places of semi-immortality by the National Institute of Arts and Letters. Among them is Brand Whitlock, former mayor of Toledo.

Forty-three members of the institute, several of them "immortals" of the American academy, made the selections at an institute meeting following a banquet at the Chicago club given by H. C. Chatfield-Taylor. Then they conferred upon Augustus Thomas, playwright, a gold medal for having achieved more in the dramatic world than any other American, taking into account the work of a life time.

The new members of the institute and their election completes the constitutional 250 members. They are:

Department of Music—Ernest Schelling, pianist and composer, said to be Paderewski's greatest pupil.

Department of Architecture—Henry Bacon, designer of the Lincoln Memorial at Washington. He is a resident of New York, but born at Watseka, Ill., and a graduate of the state university.

Arnold William Brunner, selected designer for the new building of the department of state at Washington. He is a resident of New York.

Department of Literature—Frank Jewett Mather, Jr., professor of art at Princeton university; author of art books and magazine contributor.

Francis Barton Gummere, professor of English at Haverford college, Haverford, Pa.; author of text-books on rhetoric and grammar.

Ashley Horace Thorndike, professor of English at Columbia university, New York.

Brand Whitlock, former mayor of Toledo, O.; author of many books and short stories.

The medal is awarded in any specific branch of music, literature or the arts once in ten years for life work in one of the several branches. In this, the fifth year of its award, the medal goes to a dramatist, the institute viewing his work as a whole.

Brander Matthews, professor of dramatic literature at Columbia university, was re-elected president of the institute and with him all the other present officers were re-elected.

MANY HORSES AT SHOW

Annual New York Fair Opens at Madison Square.

New York, Nov. 15.—With the entries exceeding in number those of last year, and the usual brilliant attendance of society folk, army officers and horsemen, the twenty-ninth annual horse show opened at Madison Square garden here today. There was a great demand for the arena boxes, and when the first entry appeared upon the tank the boxes were well filled with members of the social sets of New York and other cities.

Popular interest is centered in the entries by American and foreign army officers.

BROKER AND DIVORCEE WED

Kin of Calhoun and Adams Married Secretly.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 15.—Friends of John C. Calhoun, a prominent New York cotton broker, and Mrs. Mary Martin Irwin of Jacksonville, Fla., were surprised to learn that the couple were married at the Georgian Terrace hotel. Mr. Calhoun is a great-grandson of the famous John C. Calhoun and the bride is a grand-niece of President Adams, and a divorcee. The couple will reside in New York.

Wayne Farmer Found Beaten.

Wayne, Ill., Nov. 15.—With the ending of the trial of Henry Spencer the small town of Wayne, scene of the murder of Mrs. Allison Rexroat, came into prominence in another probable murder mystery. Harry Schaffer, a wealthy farmer of the town, was found in a box car in the Burlington railroad yards with his skull fractured. He was said to be dying in the St. Charles hospital at Aurora.

WORK ON BILL ENDED

Drafts of Currency Measure to Senate Next Week.

Administration Measure Specifies Board of Seven, Agreeing With the House.

Washington, Nov. 15.—The administration currency bill as it probably will go to the senate with the approval of President Wilson was completed by six Democrats of the senate banking and currency committee. Senator Hitchcock and the five Republican members of the committee continued to write into their draft of the measure amendments of which the White House has disapproved.

Arrangements probably will be made today to send both bills to the senate for consideration some time next week.

As completed, the Democratic measure provides for a system of eight regional banks, to be capitalized by enforced subscriptions from the national banks of the country, with unlimited powers of rediscount and currency issue and the power to hold reserves, the entire system to be under the control of a federal reserve board.

Chairman Owen and Senators Pomeroy, Hollis, Reed, O'Gorman and Shafroth, Democrats, made minor amendments in the bill. They cut down the federal reserve board from nine, as fixed by a former vote of the committee, to seven, as originally fixed in the house bill.

The secretary of the treasury and six members to be appointed by the president, "with regard to the financial, commercial and geographical divisions of the country," would compose the board.

The administration bill will provide the banks shall pay six per cent. dividends on their stock, accumulate a 20 per cent. surplus, and that all the earnings above that figure shall go to the government.

The Democrats eliminated from the redemption section of the bill the provision that the new currency should be redeemable in "lawful money" as well as gold.

TAMMANY AID IS INDICTED

E. P. Fowler Charged With Extortion —Proof Is Given.

New York, Nov. 15.—Everett P. Fowler of Kingston, N. Y., who was described by John A. Hennessy, graft investigator for former Governor Sulzer, as the Tammany "bagman" for contributions from state highway contractors, was indicted on a charge of extortion.

He was accused of forcing Seneca P. Hull, a highway contractor of Cortland, N. Y., and an enrolled Republican, to give $250 as a Democratic campaign contribution under threat that the work on Hull's $23,500 state road contract in Cortland county would not be approved by the state highway inspectors and that his pay would be held up.

Hull told his story to the grand jury and produced documentary evidence to support it.

JANE ADDAMS QUILTS OFFICE

Resigns Vice-Presidency of Illinois Suffrage Association.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Miss Jane Addams, first vice-president of the Illinois Equal Suffrage association, resigned at the first meeting of the new board of the association. Mrs. G. A. Soden, who has been prominent in the work of the Chicago Woman's club, was elected to take her place. The recent trouble among the leading suffragists of the state had nothing to do with the resignation, according to Miss Addams. The cause is given as too much other work and the need of a vacation.

Militant Attacks Redmond.

WOMAN SWINDLED; POLICE ARE NAMED

Gotham Officials Accused of Getting Money for Protecting Thieves.

CHICAGOAN LOSES $40,000

Indicted Men Confess and Tell of Graft—Victim Lured to House and Agent Would Collect His Commission.

New York, Nov. 15.—Confessions made to District Attorney Whitman by a gang of "wireless wiretappers," who declared that hundreds of thousands of dollars had been obtained through swindling methods sanctioned by the police. Two police lieutenants, an inspector and a civilian of high standing are involved.

Mr. Whitman said that the police officials involved had received ten per cent. of this sum and a monthly retainer of $2,500 to divide among themselves.

Chicago Woman Lost $40,000. George McRea is chief confessor of the gang of five. He states that a Chicago woman was fleeced out of $40,000 in the course of several months by gangsters in this city; that the police received their share of the loot, and that Attorney Whitman knows the woman's identity. The district attorney refuses to reveal the identity of the woman, who is understood to be wealthy and quite well known in Chicago.

Agent Given Ten Per Cent.

Mr. Whitman admitted that McRea's confession had been substantiated by the other wire tappers, all of whom are under indictment for grand larceny. Their confessions have prompted others to come forward, and further revelations are expected.

It was the custom, according to McRea, for the police to station a man outside of the building to which the victim was lured. This man would make immediate collection of the ten per cent. share. He would then report to an inspector.

WIFE TAKES DOG TO BED

Man Tells Judge He Delivered Ultimatum: "Dog or Me"—Dog Won.

Boston, Nov. 15.—"It was a dog that came between us," said Alvah E. Cook of Lynn, in explaining to Judge Edward B. O'Brien the charge of non-support that had been preferred against him by his wife.

"You see, judge, it was like this," Mr. Cook said. "Mrs. Cook has a dog. The wife used to take him to bed with her. If I moved about in the night he would bite me. Also, he had fleas."

"I got tired of it and kicked. It was no use, the wife said; the dog always had gone to bed with her and always would. Finally I couldn't stand it any longer, and one night I said either the dog would have to go or I would. She said she preferred the dog, so I left."

Cook said he would file suit for divorce.
